Happy May Desert Quail Painters:

Yes...can you believe it is already May...time is flying by and our beautiful spring time weather is upon us! Everything is absolutely amazing with all the flowers and colors of spring time! I truly hope you are enjoying it as much as I am!!

For all of you that attended Lorrie Weber's mixed media program in April..didn't you just love it!! I know I did and all the interesting techniques she taught were amazing. Congratulations to the two gift card winners...Jolene Cooley and Andrea House. Even though you were not able to attend the actual program, you both were winners and will be receiving your gift cards soon! Terri and Diana have done an outstanding job of lining up programs for the remainder of the year. All of the flyers are in this newsletter so be sure to check them out and sign up soon...especially our beautiful flower market tote piece being taught this month by Rose Melgoza...it will be a gorgeous piece!!

We also have a spectacular Summer Seminar planned for you...Sandy McTier will be joining us in person, as well as via Zoom, to teach two projects...one that she designed specifically for us and will be naming in our honor! It is September 22 and 23, 2023 from 9 am to 4pm at Faith Lutheran Church in Hesperia. We will have lunch both days and raffles for you to participate in...please plan to join us either in person or via Zoom on one day or both! We would love to spend time together painting and enjoying your friendship!

Catherine and LaVerne have also got the plans underway for our Christmas party...check out their article later in the newsletter as the theme has been revealed and it will definitely be a spicy time together celebrating!

Take care of yourselves and keep your brushes moving...your spirit will be lifted as well!

Christmas Party:

Catherine Schinhofen & LaVerne Stein

Hello folks! We are on a roll! We recently met at Hobby Lobby to visualize some of our fun ideas for our Christmas party. You've heard about two kids in a candy store? That was us! Suffice it to say, there is no stopping us now! Just a friendly reminder that we will carry on our annual tradition of the Christmas ornament exchange, so paint away!

Our party theme is, "It's a Gingerbread World" and whoever paints the ornament which best captures our theme will win a one year supply of gingerbread cookies!

Just kidding...!!

Thanks! Catherine & LaVerne

Easter Egg Exchange...Fall Exchange:

Debbie Ragains

Hi Ladies!!

We are changing our egg exchange to a fall exchange, so will be doing it later in the year. Trying something new and hoping to get a better response. Will do a canvas piece, given away free from the club. Then vote on favorites with gift certificates for most vote getters. The exchange will be done after voting. Will be fun to see what people are going to paint.

If interested in participating, we will start taking names now and send you out, or pick up, the surface to get a jump start on the exchange—hope to see lots of participation!

Thanks, Debbie

Programs:

Terri Mullin and Diana Van Riel

Hello All:

Thank you all for joining us for Lorrie Weber's great mixed media program. We learned a lot of very unique techniques and those that attended really enjoy themselves.

We are looking forward to all the great programs planned for the remainder of the year—make sure you sign up soon! And, don't miss out on our Summer Seminar with Sandy McTier—both in person and on Zoom...we promise it will not disappoint!!

One final note, Terri will be out of the country till mid-May, please do not panic if she doesn't respond right away to your email, text or phone call. She'll be back at her desk on the 12th and respond then!

Fair:

Carol Whitton

Many thanks to our members who submitted entries to this year's Fair - Cecilia Luk, Terri Mullin, Donna Petrillo, Laverne Stein, Kim Tamiazzo, Diana Van Riel, and Carol Whitton. I can't wait to share pictures of the beautiful entries we received. The judges are going to have a very difficult time making their selections for the Best of Show winners in each division. Good luck to each of you!

I may be contacting those of you who reside in the Southern California area to help out at our demonstration table during the Fair. This gives us an opportunity to share our craft with the public and to talk to them about our Guild possibly recruiting some new members. Plus, our volunteers receive a FREE gate and parking ticket. So, before or after your "shift" you could enjoy the many exhibits, food, vendor shows, animals, and amusement rides. Fair hours are 2 - 10 pm.

Last, it's NOT TOO LATE to begin thinking about the 2024 Fair! Any project you start or finish after the Fair closes this year is eligible to enter. My tip is to have a bin or special area in your house where you set aside items you'd like to enter. We have four divisions - Novice (Beginner), Intermediate, Advanced, and Professional. You compete against other painters of like ability. Most importantly, however, it's a time for us to share with others about decorative painting! Those of you who do not reside in or close to the area may enter too!

In the spirit of Jane Haggard, that's all the "nagging" I'll do for now.

Deb Ramo

Education & Tips—Deb Ramo

Following tips are from Peggy Harris.....

- Casting a shadow

Mix your own universal shade color with Dioxazine Purple plus Raw Umber. Made transparent with a gel medium or water, this mix is perfect for cast shadows. For warmer shadows, use more Raw Umber. For cooler shadows, use more Dioxazine Purple.

- Transparent Paints

All paint is transparent to one degree or another. For the greatest luminosity, always undercoat the object in white so that the light can penetrate the paint, bounce off the white undercoat, and return to the eye. Note: ALWAYS undercoat yellow butterflies with white.

Happy
Day
